

Fall in Love with African Travel, Inc.'s Romantic Safaris

DELRAY BEACH, Fla., Feb. 2, 2016 – African Travel, Inc. is offering two spectacular South Africa journeys perfect for Valentine's Day, honeymoons and anniversaries. African Travel, who was recently named the "Best Tour Operator to Africa" by Recommend readers and one of Travel + Leisure's "World's Best," is celebrated for its fully-customizable safaris and these packages are no exception; guests can add a wide variety of enchanting inclusions to complete their journey, from private dinners on the beach to invigorating spa treatments.

"South Africa is one of the world's most charming and quixotic destinations," said Sherwin Banda, president, African Travel. "We've designed these itineraries to showcase the country's most remarkable features while including a variety of luxurious extras, from sunset cruises to helicopter rides."

Prepare for amorous adventures on African Travel's "South Africa Seascapes and Wildlife," an 11-day journey from the rich landscapes of the fairest Cape to the turquoise waters of Mozambique's Bazaruto Island. Couples enjoy the vibrant city of Cape Town for four nights, exploring its striking scenery with private excursions and either a helicopter flight along the Atlantic Seaboard's exquisite coastline or a sailboat sunset cruise. Three nights at Sabi Sand Private Game Reserve are complete with twice-daily game drives, vibrant sundowners and tranquil spa treatments. For an unforgettable finale, guests enjoy three nights in the palm fringed, white-sand beaches and cerulean waters of the Bazaruto Archipelago. This paradise is now protected as the country's only marine reserve, and optional activities include kayaking, sailing on an authentic dhow, scuba diving, and pampering therapy treatments.

“African Romance” is African Travel’s classic romantic retreat, complete with starlit dinners in the bush, sundowners beneath Table Mountain and soothing beachside massages at an idyllic beach resort on Mozambique’s Lagoon coast. This indulgent 12-day safari includes three nights in Cape Town, one of the world’s most beautiful cities, and two nights in the Franschhoek Valley, renowned for its fine wines and world-class cuisine. Three nights at the KwaZulu-Natal Private Reserve include the best aspects of a Big Five safari with enchanting additions like private candle-lit gourmet dinners and in-villa aromatherapy and massage. And three nights at the White Pearl Resorts – a private beach resort comprised of gorgeous ocean-facing suites, each with a private plunge pool – are guaranteed to promote couples falling in love all over again.
